

she talks to rainbows

Adelaide Airport
7 April - 4 July 2018

Featuring
Annette Bezor
Jasmine Crisp
Kate Kurucz
Julia Townsend
Laura Wills
Margaret Worth
Eleanor Zecchin
Curated by Carollyn Kavanagh

She talks to rainbows brings together works drawn from the practices of seven female South Australian artists. The title pays homage to the process of painting and the magic that occurs when pigment and the two-dimensional plane meet. Sharing the use of vibrant colour, this intergenerational line-up of artists work with the vocabulary of painting, both figuratively and in abstraction.
