

Adelaide Airport 4 September - 11 December

Marni naa pudni Welcome

Featuring
Ernabella Arts
Inkatja & Dave Laslett
Gavin Wanganeen

Tandanya National Aboriginal Cultural Institute (TNACI) is the leading First Nations multi-arts gallery and performance space in Australia. It is committed to the preservation and ongoing support of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Arts and Culture. Based at 253 Grenfell Street Adelaide SA, 2019 marks the 30th Anniversary of its opening in 1989.

Kurna Warra Karrpanthi (KWK), the leading group dedicated to Kurna language revitalisation and maintenance process consulted on the Marni naa pudni - Welcome exhibition. The traditional lands and language of the Kurna people include the Adelaide Plains of South Australia.

Art at T1

The Art at T1 program presents curated exhibitions at Adelaide Airport starring South Australian artists and promoting our creative economy to local, interstate and international audiences. Art at T1 is curated by Carolyn Kavanagh.

